

Margaret Meadows Lovett

May 10, 1928 – November 7, 1997

(From Ancestry and Findagrave.com)

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Margaret (Meadows) Lovett, 69, of Savannah, Ga., died Friday at her home.

The service will be 1 p.m. today at White Bluff United Methodist Church in Savannah. Burial will be private. Visitation will follow the service at the church. The Sipple's Mortuary, 5525 Abercorn St., Savannah, is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Lovett was born in Hinton, W.Va.

She was head bank teller of Trust Company Bank, retiring after 28 years of service. She was a member of White Bluff United Methodist Church, where she did volunteer work in the church office, and she was a volunteer for the Ladies' Auxiliary of Candler Hospital.

Mrs. Lovett is survived by two sons, David Lovett of Omaha, Neb., and Henry L. Lovett III of Savannah; a daughter, Mary L. Pendexter of Hampton, Ga.; five grandchildren; two brothers, Carl Meadows of St. Albans, W.Va., and Jack Meadows of Hinton, W.Va.; a sister, Elizabeth Kirts of Clifton Forge, Va.; and nieces and nephews.

Officiating at the service will be the Rev. Nathan C. Godley.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to White Bluff United Methodist Church, 11911 White Bluff Road, Savannah, Ga. 31419.