Boyd Funeral Services Today

HINTON — Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. today for Mrs. Maude Boyd, who died at her Bellepoint home Friday morning following a lengthy illness.

Rites will be held in the Central Baptist Church with the Rev. H. P. Hackney officiating. Burial will follow in Talcott Cemetery.

In declining health for several years, her condition became critical Monday.

She was the wife of N. O. Boyd.

She was born at Lowell, Aug. 21, 1890, a daughter of the late John and Emma Bush Willey, and had resided in Summers County all her life, the last 40 years in Hinton and Bellepoint.

A former teacher in the city and county schools, she retired in 1946, after 28 years of service. She was a member of the Central Baptist Church and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son, John Boyd, of Williamson, two brothers: Arthur Willey, of Bellepoint, and Guy Willey, and two grandchildren.
