

Birdie Hatcher Gill

August 1, 1911 – October 29, 1999

(From Findagrave.com)

KEATLEY SPRINGS – Birdie I. Gill, 88, died Friday, Oct. 29, 1999, in a Summers County hospital following a short illness.

Born Aug. 1, 1911, in Hinton, she was the daughter of the late Thomas and Minnie Saunders Hatcher.

Mrs. Gill was a homemaker, was of the Baptist faith and lived in Summers County all of her life.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward C. Gill, in 1974; a son, Dan Gill; a daughter, Carol Berg; and two sisters, Ruby McGraw and Catherine Thompson.

Survivors include three sons, Edward Gill and his wife, Patty, of Frankford, Ky., Melvin Gill and his wife, Phyllis, of Grandview, Ind., and Jackie Gill and wife, Ruth, of Upland; a daughter, Mrs. Jim (Phyllis) Light of Upland; a son-in-law, Mike Berg of Herndon, Va.; a brother, Tommy Hatcher of Fort Spring; three sisters, Martha Taylor of Lockbridge, Cecil Gill of Lewisburg and Nannie Williams of Hinton; 16 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Graveside services and burial will be 2 p.m. today at Upland Cemetery with the Revs. Benny Allen and Ronald Cobb officiating.

There will be no visitation.

Pallbearers will be Robbie Adkins, Jamy Ballard, Jim Grose, J.R. Gill, Kevin Wills and Ryan Martin.

Arrangements by Pivont Funeral Home, Hinton.

Publication: Register Herald Beckley, WV - October 31, 1999