

Margaret May Moore Brook

September 3, 1939 – April 23, 2016

(From Robinson Funeral Home April 2016)

Margaret May Brook, 76, of Delaware, died Saturday, April 23, 2016 at Riverside Hospital. She was born September 3, 1939 in Marlinton, WV to the late Edith May (Patton) and Theodore Moore.

Margaret was a member of St. Peters Episcopal Church. She loved her church and was very active. She spent her working career as a nurse. She enjoyed gardening, but her greatest pleasure was spending time with her grandchildren. Margaret always had a smile on her face and had a welcoming personality. She will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

She is survived by one son, Tom (Sarah) Brook of Delaware; two grandchildren, Andrew and Rachel Brook; and one sister, Kathleen (Bill) Macoughtry of Laurel, MD.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 48 years, The Rev. William V. Brook Jr; and her parents.

A memorial service will be Friday at 2:00PM at St. Peters Episcopal Church with The Rev. Canon Price and Rev. Terry Highland co-officiating.

Robinson Funeral Home is in care of arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made in Margaret's name to St. Peters Episcopal Church, 45 W. Winter Street. Delaware, OH 43015 and/or the American Cancer Society, 5555 Frantz Rd, Dublin, OH 43016.
