

Alice Parker Gray
April 18, 1910 – September 15, 1962
(From - Hinton Daily News - September 17, 1962)

rites today for Mrs. Alice Gray

Funeral rites were held today at 2 p.m. at the Ascension Episcopal church for Mrs. Alice Parker Gray, 52, life-long resident who died suddenly Saturday morning.

The Rev. David Heil conducted the service with burial following in the Hilltop cemetery.

Active pallbearers were David Doyle, Ira Webb, Charles Harrah, Dr. W. P. Mathews, Harold Eagle, R. S. Neely, Jr., John Angotti and Joe Simms.

Honorary pallbearers named were Dr. W. L. Van Sant, Dr. D. W. Ritter, Dr. A. W. Holmes, Dr. Jack Woodrum and W. A. Brown.

A resident of 116 James Street, Mrs. Gray was born in Hinton, April 18, 1910, a daughter of the late R. Elmo Parker and Augusta Dakin Parker, pioneer residents. She was a graduate of Hinton High School, Marshall College and had been employed as laboratory technician at Hinton Hospital for the past 22 years.

She was organist and a most active member of Ascension Episcopal church.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Harold Metz of Parkersburg; three brothers, Lt. Col. Hunter D. Parker of Langley Field, Va., Jesse D. Parker of Charleston and R. Elmo Parker of Washington; three sisters, Mrs. Sarah Fitzsimmons of Hinton, Mrs. Sophie Manos of Washington and Mrs. Louise Kenney of Kennington, Md.

The body remained at the E. M. Meadows Funeral Home, on Park Avenue until the service hour.