

Virginia Belle Lilly DiCiuccio

April 26, 1920 – March 19, 2013

(From Roseandquesenberry.net)

Virginia Belle DiCiuccio, age 92, of Beckley, passed away on Tuesday March 19, 2013.

Born on April 26, 1920(sic) in Hinton, W.Va., she was the daughter of the late Belle Anderson, and was reared by the late Adney and Lottie Meadows of Hinton.

Mrs. DiCiuccio was the former owner and operator, with her husband, of Andy's Market and Greenhouse in Sprague. She had also worked at Legal Aide, at the Mine Academy, the Prosecuting Attorney's office, and Beckley Junior High School in an administrative role at the school.

She was very active in several clubs in Beckley, including the Beckley Woman's Club, the Beckley Garden Club, the Beckley Historical Society, the Democratic Women's Club, and had served on the Board of Directors of the Lilly Reunion Association.

Mrs. DiCiuccio was a member of the Saint Francis deSales Catholic Church, where she was active in various groups at the church.

Mrs. DiCiuccio was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Andrew DiCiuccio, and by a daughter, Patricia Ann Aliff.

Survivors include two daughters, Jeanette Phillips of Columbus, Ohio and Mary Kathryn Endicott of Columbus, Ohio. Nine grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren are also surviving.

A Funeral Liturgy will be held at the Saint Francis deSales Catholic Church in Beckley on Saturday, March 23, 2013, at 11 a.m. with Monsignor Samuel Sacus as the Celebrant. A Rite of Committal will follow at Sunset Memorial Park Mausoleum in Beckley.

Friends may call at the Rose and Quesenberry Funeral Home in Beckley on Friday from 6 to 8 p.m., where a rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m. with Rev. Mr. Don Wise.

Family members will serve as pallbearers