

Deloris J. Caul

June 7, 1947 – July 21, 1996

(From Hinton News – July 30, 1996)

DELORIS J. CAUL

Deloris "Dee" J. Caul, 49, of Naugatuck, Conn., died Sunday, July 21, 1996, in a Connecticut hospital.

Born June 7, 1947, in Covington Va., she was the daughter of Billy and Constance I. Caul Galloway of Hinton.

Mrs. Caul was a unit manager for more than 19 years at the Federal Correctional Institute in Danbury, Conn. She was a member of Zion Baptist Church, Waterbury, and was a missionary in the Gospel choir of the church. She was an assistant to the Junior Missionary Department of the Connecticut Baptist Convention.

She had been a resident of Naugatuck for 15 years.

Other survivors include a son, Darryl Caul of Hinton; a brother, Robert W. Caul of Hinton; and two sisters, Charlotte F. Caul-Dukes of Austin, Texas, and Teresa Freeman of Columbus, Ohio.

Services were held at 11 a. m. Sat., July 27th., at Pivont Funeral Home Chapel, Hinton, with Rev. Billy Galloway, Rev. Elmer Day, Rev. Peter Collins and Rev. Robert Davis officiating. Burial followed in Cedar Hills Cemetery, Covington, Va.

Arrangements by Pivont Funeral Home, Hinton.