

James M. "Mickey" Doyle

March 5, 1943 – September 25, 2007

(From Pivont Funeral Home September 2007)

James M. "Mickey" Doyle, 64 of Madams Creek Road, Hinton died at 4:00 p.m. Tuesday September 25, 2007 at his home surrounded by his family & friends after a courageous battle with cancer.

Born March 5, 1943 in Hinton, he was the son of the late John W. & Clare Miller Doyle.

Mickey grew up and lived his life on Madams Creek in Hinton. He attended Hinton High School and served in the United States Air Force. Mickey was an avid fisherman with a love for the outdoors. He could often be seen admiring the birds and wildlife that gathered outside his home or just traveling along the mountain streams in Summers County. Mickey's house on the creek became a favorite meeting place for friends to share a cup of coffee and enjoy Mickey's quick wit and kind heart. He was retired from the West Virginia Department of Highways in Summers County. Mickey was a lifelong member of Brooklyn United Methodist Church at Madams Creek and attended Central Baptist Church in Hinton after Brooklyn's closure.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, David & Tommy Doyle.

A loving and faithful man to his wife, Brenda Allen Doyle who survives, along with their daughter, Jaime Michelle Doyle. Mickey held a special designation as "grandpa" for Geri "Punkin" Lewis and her son, Nathan. Also surviving are his three loyal canine companions, Hooter, Fala, and Gizmo. Mickey will be sadly missed by all his family & friends.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. Friday September 28, 2007 at Pivont Funeral Home Chapel in Hinton with Pastor Grover Morris officiating.

Burial will follow in Restwood Memorial Gardens in Hinton. Friends may call from 6 until 8 p.m. Thursday evening at the funeral home.

Pallbearers will be; Dan Lewis, Dale Hedrick, Ronald Bowling, Fred Elkins and Bobbi Whittle.
