

Fred Lamont Helmintoller

February 13, 1933 – August 20, 2020

(From Ancestry and Findagrave.com)

Fred Lamont Helmintoller passed away peacefully at the Virginia Veteran's Care Center on August 20th. After serving in the Marine Corp stationed in Korea, he trained to become a barber and ultimately opened his own shop, Lamont's Hair Place. He managed his shop for nearly 40 years and was affectionately known as the mayor of Grandin Road.

He is survived by his loving wife of 61 years Eva Janet, his son Kevin Helmintoller of Tampa, FL, his daughter, Karen Kelly of Darnestown, MD, six grandchildren, four great grandchildren and two siblings Mason Helmintoller and Ginny Kendrick.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Marine Corp Scholarship Fund.
