

Robert Newton Dean

June 1, 1920 – January 29, 1944

(From - Hinton Daily News - February 11, 1944)

SGT. ROBERT N. DEAN KILLED IN ACTION IN ENGLAND JAN. 29

ROBERT N. DEAN

Son Of Mrs. Irene Dean: Other Details Not Listed By War Department

Mrs. Irene Dean, of 1323 Temple street, was advised by the war department today that her son, Staff Sergeant Robert N. Dean, 23 years old, had been "killed in action" January 29, in England.

No other details of how the young man met his death were given.

Sergeant Dean enlisted in the army air corps on August 8, 1942. He completed his training as gunner at Kearney, Nebraska, October 29, 1943.

On November 23, 1943, he was assigned to overseas duty and was sent to England.
