

Donna Sue Richmond Harrah

April 8, 1958 – October 4, 2005

(From Beckley Register-Herald October 7, 2005 – copied for better legibility)

Donna Sue Harrah, 47, of Piney View, died Tuesday, Oct. 4, 2009 at home due to complications from gastric bypass done in Low Moor, Va.

Born April 8, 1958, in Lincoln, Ill., she was the daughter of the late Stewart Richmond and Eva Bolen.

Mrs. Harrah was a registered nurse at Beckley Appalachian Regional Hospital where she had been a nursing supervisor for the past six years. She graduated from Bluefield State College with a B.S. degree in nursing. She was an ACLS instructor and involved in Girl Scouts and enjoyed helping others.

Survivors include her husband Wayne Harrah; a son, Jaime Harrah and wife, Bobbi, of Piney View; daughters, Haley Harrah at home and Michelle Yancey of Elton; a brother, Tom Richmond and wife, Sandy of Alderson; a sister, Gina Cook and husband, Jerry , of Jumping Branch; and a granddaughter, Amber Meade of Stanaford.\

Service will be 11 a.m. Saturday at Rose and Quesenberry Peace Chapel, Beckley, with the Rev. Floyd Bolen officiating. Burial will follow in Harrah Cemetery, Backus Mountain.

Friends may call 6 to 9 p.m. today at the funeral home.

Family and friends will serve as pallbearers.

Arrangements by Rose and Quesenberry Funeral Home, Beckley.