(From Hinton News – February 23, 2016)

REV. REX LUSK

Rev. Rex Lusk, 52, of Schellsburg, PA., passed away on February 13, 2016 at his home. He was born on November 24, 1963 in Hinton, West Virginia; a son of Juanita (Adkins) Lusk of Talcott, and the late Freeman Lusk. He was united in marriage to Carol (Reed) Lusk on August 3, 1985 at the Foot of Ten Bible Church, Duncansville, PA.

Along with his wife and mother, he is survived by children: son Benjamin Lusk married to Cayt, Duncansville, PA; son Caleb Lusk, Fort Ashby, WV, daughter Isabella Lusk, residing at home; a sister Kendra Ratliff and family, Talcott, W.V.; and the following five grandchildren: Andrew, Wren, Silas, Declan and Ezekiel.

He was preceded in death by an infant sister Lisa and recently his father Freeman Lusk.

Rex was a graduate of Hinton High School Class of 1982 and Appalachian Bible College Class of 1986.

Pastor Lusk was a minister at the Bedford Bible Church since 1997 and previously served churches in West Virginia and Maryland.

Rex loved all animals and enjoyed caring for his cats and helping with his daughter's horses. He dearly loved spending time with his grandchildren. One of his favorite passions was martial arts and teaching Nunchaku. He was a third degree black belt in Tang Soo Do Mu Duk-Kwan.

He enjoyed writing plays and dressing up for the parts of the skits that he performed for the children of the church.

Family and Friends called at the Bedford Bible Church, 15 Meadow Lane, Bedford, PA. 15522 on Thursday, February, 18, 2016 from 6:00-7:00 P.M.

A Celebration of Life Service followed at 7:00 P.M. at the Bedford Bible Church with Pastor John Lytle officiating.
