

Glenn Ray “Mule” Bennett

May 26, 1940 – September 26, 2006

(From a post on Ancestry.com)

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio - Glenn Ray “Mule” Bennett, 66, went home to be with his Lord at 8:37 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 26, 2006, at the Doctor’s West Hospital in Columbus, Ohio. His death was sudden and unexpected.

He was born May 26, 1940, in Hinton to Milton and Ursa Keaton Bennett, both deceased, as well as one brother, Jackie Bennett. He was a high school All-America football player and also played at the West Virginia University where he graduated with a degree in education. He taught and coached sports at Hinton High School.

Glenn was a member, national director and judge of the American Paint Horse Association and also a director of the Ohio Paint Horse Association. He was also a trainer of national and world champion paint horses. Glenn had spent the past 18 years in this community where he attended Grace Community Church, playing an active role in the Bless Your Heart seed group. He was a salesman with McGraw-Hill Co.

Survivors include his wife, Gamma Bennett, whom he married on Jan. 10, 2001; his son, Michael (Jeri) Bennett of Kent, Ohio; granddaughter, Erin Bennett; sister, Mildred Reed of Texas; brother, Gene (Betty) Bennett of Maryland; and special cousin, Lester (Ann) Bennett of Columbus. Also surviving is a special friend, Butch Snider.

Service will be 11 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 30, at Grace Community Church, 525 Glenn Ave., Washington, Ohio, with the Rev. Dr. Robert Gromacki and Pastors Jay Lucas and Sean Fox officiating, with burial to follow in Washington Cemetery.

Friends may call 4 to 8 p.m. today at the church.

Online condolences may be sent to www.summersfunberalhome.com.