

William Lilly
May 14, 1919 – February 28, 1998

(From - Beckley Register Herald - March 2, 1998)

William C. Lilly

HINTON — William C. Lilly, 78, of 103 Locust St., Hinton, died Saturday, Feb. 28, 1998, at his home following a short illness.

Born May 14, 1919, at Hinton, he was the son of the late Milton H. and Stella R. Lilly.

Mr. Lilly was a retired train dispatcher with the C & O Railway Co., Hinton.

He was a member of the Central Baptist Church, Hinton, and was a chairman of the trustee board and various other church offices. He was a member of the American Train Dispatchers Association, the Dawn Sportsman Club, Hinton, the Hinton Lions Club, and the National Rifle Association. He was a former member of the Hinton City Council and was an avid bow and gun hunter and an accomplished gardener and craftsman.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Karen L. Williams.

Survivors include his wife, Edna Lorine Clinebell Lilly; a son, Chilton Lilly, of Elkview; two grandchildren, Don Williams Jr. of Princeton and Michelle Leigh Comer of Cincinnati, Ohio; a great-granddaughter, Jordan Nicole Comer; a stepgreat-granddaughter, Jessica Williams; and a brother and three sisters.

Services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Central Baptist Church, Hinton, with Pastors Roy L. Honaker Jr. and Glen Kuhn officiating. Entombment will be in Greenbrier Burial Park Mausoleum, Hinton.

Friends may call 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. today at the Pivont Funeral Home, Hinton.

Pallbearers will be Burkey, Jack and Ronald K. Lilly, Gene Cole, Terry Richmond, Bob Wheeler, Jim Monroe, Tom Clinebell, Robert McDowell, Steve Meadows, Roy Carter, Bill Goodwin, Sam Philpott, Bob Basham, Phillip Gwinn, Herb Ellison, and Jack Parker.

Arrangements by Pivont Funeral Home, Hinton.