

Thomas Tinsley Rogers, Sr.

August 26, 1910 – June 16, 1990

(From -Asbury Park Press, NJ – Tuesday, June 18, 1990)

THOMAS TINSLEY

ROGERS SR., a former football coach at Wake Forest, died Saturday at home in DURHAM, N.C. He was 79.

Rogers, a native of Hinton, W.Va., was a 1933 graduate of Duke, where he was a line coach with Wallace Wade for four years. From 1938 to 1940, he served as line coach at Wake Forest and then served as end coach at Clemson for two years. He returned to Wake Forest in 1946 as head coach and was there until 1954, compiling a 21-25-4 record.

— The Associated Press