

James McKinley “Jim” Richmond

August 25, 1949 – October 6, 2007

(From Meaningfulfunerals.net)

James McKinley “Jim” Richmond, 58, of Bolt, passed from this life on Saturday, Oct. 6, 2007, at the St. Mary’s Hospital in Huntington following a sudden illness.

Jim was born on Freezeland Mountain, near Hinton, on Aug. 25, 1949, to the late Owen McKinley and Sarah Belle Hogan Richmond.

Mr. Richmond was a salesman for Hughes Supply Co. and was a U.S. Army veteran.

He was preceded in death by his sisters, Betty Lowery and Virginia Bowman.

Survivors include his wife, Deanna Williams Richmond; children, William “Bill” Richmond of MacArthur, James Richmond, Jr. of MacArthur, Craig Cobb of Beckley, Lori and her husband, Chuck Lester, of Holly Mills, and Thomas “Punkin” Cobb and wife, Melanie, of Seymour, Tenn.; two grandchildren, Dylan and Kendra; two sisters, Rachel Rucker and husband, Eddie, of Shady Spring and Etta Feltz of Beckley; numerous nieces and nephews; and his buddy, “Target.”

Funeral service will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at the Rose and Quesenberry Peace Chapel in Beckley, with Elder Richard Hurst officiating. Burial will follow at the Richmond Cemetery at Freezeland Mountain.