Hinton Youth Dies

HINTON (RNS) — Thomas Ervin Meadows, 18, of Greenbrier Drive in Hinton and a student at Potomac State College at Keyser was killed at 1 a.m. Sunday in a one-truck accident on U.S. 50 near Kingswood in Preston County.

State Police said Meadows' truck apparently went out of control hitting a rock cliff. According to officers Meadows was killed instantly.

Meadows attended the First Baptist Church in Hinton.

Born in Hinton, Aug. 3, 1954, he was a son of James Ervin and Mary Carol Eubank Meadows of Hinton.

Survivors include one brother, Steven C. Meadows of Hinton; one sister, Mrs. Lynn Gwinn of Ft. Dix, N. J., and paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mae Meadows of Hinton.

The body is at E. M. Meadows Funeral Home in Hinton.

State Police said Meadows was a passenger in a pickup truck operated by Kenneth George Hastie, 19, of Charleston. Hastie, also a freshman at Potomac State, was reported in satisfactory condition in a Kingwood hospital.
