

Almeda Jane Lambert Heinemann

August 31, 1946 – October 11, 1999

(From Hinton News October 26, 1999)

ALMEDA J. HEINEMANN

Almeda Jane Heinemann, 53, of Westminster, MD., died Monday, Oct 11, 1999, at Carroll County General Hospital after an extended illness.

Born Aug. 31, 1946, in Wyoming County, WV, she was the daughter of the late John K. and Nellie Bailey Lambert of Hinton. She was the wife of James Wickham Heinemann Sr., who died in 1997.

She graduated from Hinton High School class of 1964. She also attended Concord College and the University of Maryland at College Park. She worked for several years at the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, office of Finance, in Washington, D.C., and the TRW Corp. at Tysons Corner, VA. She was a math and biology teacher at Warren County High School in Front Royal, Virginia for two years, and taught math at Francis Scott Key High School in Carroll County Maryland for 5 years.

Surviving are son James Heinemann Jr. of Westminster, MD; daughter Catherine Heinemann of Finksburg, MD; brother Ike Lambert of Hinton.