

Hazel Seldomridge Bowers

December 27, 1910 – August 16, 1961

(From - Hinton Daily News - August 17, 1961)

MRS. HAZEL BOWERS DIES IN BLUEFIELD

Mrs. Hazel Seldomridge Bowers, 50 of 208 Seventh Avenue, died at 6:55 p. m. Wednesday in a Bluefield hospital after a 16 month illness.

Born in Hinton, December 27, 1910, she was a daughter of Mrs. Newton D. Seldomridge and the late Mr. Seldomridge and had lived most of her life in Hinton.

Mrs. Bowers graduated from Hinton High School with the class of 1929 and was employed at the state house in Charleston until 1953. She was a member of the First Baptist church.

Surviving in addition to her mother are one brother, Lawrence Seldomridge of St. Albans and one sister, Miss Lillian Seldomridge at home.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlors with the Rev. H. U. Thompson and the Rev. E. W. Billings officiating. Burial will follow in the Greenbrier Burial Park.

The body will remain at the funeral parlors.

Named as pallbearers are C. C. Buckland, George Gwinn, Sr., Charles Berry, Howard Lego, Fred Webb, Boyd Maddy, Clarence Nicely, Sam McLean, T. B. Youell and Charles Boley.