

William Dougher

July 17, 1923 – December 30, 1984

(From – Beaumont, TX Enterprise - December 31, 1984)

William Dougher Jr.

BEAUMONT, Texas — William E. (Bill) Dougher Jr., a brother of Mary Dougher Allen of Aiken, died Dec. 29 in Beaumont.

A Christian Wake was held on Dec. 30 in Broussard's Mortuary Chapel. A Mass of Resurrection was held on Dec. 31 at St. Pius X Catholic Church with the Rev. Jim Courville officiating. Burial was held in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Beaumont.

Mr. Dougher was born in Lewisburg, W.Va., on July 17, 1923. He was a U.S. Army World War II veteran. He was a graduate of the University of Tennessee where he held a bachelor of science degree in civil engineering. He was a former employee of the Savannah River Plant in Aiken until 1962 when he was transferred to the Du Pont plant in Beaumont.

Other survivors include his widow, Jeanne Dougher; two sons, W. Patrick Dougher, Longview, Texas, and Timothy Shawn Dougher, Pinewood, Texas; two daughters, Sharon Beth Brown, Houston, Texas, and Lauren Ann Randolph, Beaumont; one other sister, Perry Dougher Falls, Minneapolis, Minn.; and three grandchildren.