

Verda K. Jackson

May 18, 1950 – March 1, 1997

(From Hinton News – March 11, 1997)

VERDA K. JACKSON

Verda Kay Jackson, 46, of 464 Four Seasons Drive, Charlottesville, VA, formerly of Hinton, died 8:05 p. m., Saturday, March 1, 1997, at the home of her mother, Mary E. Jackson following a three-year illness.

Born May 18, 1950, in Hinton, she was the daughter of Mary E. Williams Jackson of Hinton and the late Henry G. Jackson.

Ms. Jackson was an employee of Heritage Nursing Home in Charlottesville and a member of the Second Baptist Church in Hinton.

She was preceded in death by her companion, Henry "Jett" Williams.

Other survivors include a son, Bradley A. Jackson of Charlottesville, VA.; two brothers, Henry G. Jackson Jr. of Washington, D.C. and Douglas Jackson of Hinton; five sisters, Donna Meadows, Paula Janell Jackson and Kathy Jackson, all of Hinton, Debra Craigen of Randletown, MD. and Tamara Lynn Jackson of Landover, MD.

Services were held at 2 p. m. Tues. March 4th. at Pivont Funeral Home Chapel in Hinton with the Revs. Matthew Saunders and Billy Galloway officiating. Burial followed in Esquire Cemetery, Hinton.

Pallbearers were Greg Pack, Kelly Galloway, Doug Cales, John Cook, Don Galloway, Chris Gore, Henry Kinley and Mark Crawford.

Arrangements by Pivont Funeral Home, Hinton.