FORMER RESIDENT OF CITY DIES SATURDAY
FROM HEART ATTACK

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 11 a. m. for Woodrow (Andy) Allen of Kenova and a former Hinton resident who died unexpectedly Saturday from a heart attack.

The funeral will be held in the Kenova Methodist church with Rev. W. A. Debar officiating. Burial will follow in the Ridgelawn Cemetery.

Mr. Allen died while working on his farm on Big Sandy Road near Cyrus.

For the last eight years Mr. Allen had been teacher in the Kenova schools. He was president of the Kenova Lions Club and a member of the Masonic Lodge.

He was a graduate of the Hinton High School, and was an outstanding athlete here and at Marshall College.

Survivors include his wife, June Garrett Allen; one daughter, Sandra Jane Allen at home; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Allen of Hinton; two sisters, Norma Allen of Hinton and Mrs. Robert Hammond of Clovis, N. M.; three brothers, F. H. Allen of Evanston, Ill., Archie Allen of Columbus and Herbert Allen of Morgantown.

The Masons will hold graveside rites and they will serve as pallbearers.
