

Toney Anthony Anderson

December 31, 1960 – May 25, 2000

(From Register – Herald via Findagrave.com)

HINTON - Toney A. Anderson, 39, of Johnson Street, died Thursday, May 25, 2000, at the home of his mother in Nimitz.

Born Dec. 31, 1960, in Mullens, he was the son of Goldie Smith Folden of Nimitz and the late George Anderson.

Mr. Anderson was a locomotive engineer for CSX Transportation Corp. in Hinton. He attended Bellepoint Baptist Church, Hinton, and was a member of the Hinton Elks Lodge, Willow Wood Country Club and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

He was also preceded in death by his stepfather, Earl Folden.

Other survivors include his wife, Becky Bradberry Anderson; a son, Trevor Anthony Anderson at home; two daughters, Jackie and Sherry Anderson, both at home; three brothers, Danny Anderson of Oceana and Bobby and Marvin Anderson, both of Nimitz; and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be 1 p.m. Sunday at Pivont Funeral Home Chapel, Hinton, with the Revs. Chris Brown and Bill Ballengee officiating.

Burial will follow in Ball Family Cemetery, Zion Mountain, near Hinton.

Friends may call 6 to 9 p.m. today at the funeral home.

Pallbearers will be James Allen Williams, Frank Wheby, Greg Lilly, Steve Duncan, Jerry McMillion, Dickie Cook and J.P. Bowling.
Arrangements by Pivont Funeral Home, Hinton.

Publication: Register-Herald Beckley, WV 27 May 2000