Lewis I. Montgomery, Sr., 76, of Elkton, Md. passed away peacefully at his home January 13, 2011.

Born in Clifton Forge, Va. on June 15, 1934, Lew was the son of the late Clayton and Daisy Moss Montgomery. He graduated in 1952 from Hinton High School, Hinton, W. Va., then relocated to Maryland and completed a 30-year career at the Chrysler Assembly Plant in Newark, Del., retiring in 1983. He was an active member of Baldwin United Methodist Church in Elk Mills, Md., and dedicated many years of his life to serving the Lord. Lew loved music, laughter, good food and fellowship. He always had a bright smile and a kindly word to offer and will be remembered as a loving, devoted husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather.

He is survived by two sons, Lewis, Jr. and his wife Neva of Rising Sun, Md., and Mark and his wife Joy of Adelphi, Md.; step-son William Davis and his wife Debbie of Earleville, Md.; daughter-in-law Robin of Conowingo, Md.; daughter Donna Fasano and her husband William of Bear, Del.; and sister Dorothy of Riviera Beach, Fla. He also leaves behind eleven grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews, his close friend Patricia Garvey and many loyal friends. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife Norma Jean, his second wife Doris Lillian, his son Michael Lee, brothers Clayton, Jr. and John David, and his sister, Wanda.

A service celebrating Lew's life will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Tues. January 18, 2011 at Baldwin UMC, 756 Elk Mills Road, Elk Mills, MD 21920.

Friends and family may call at the church Mon. evening from 6-8:00 p.m. Burial will be in Elkton Cemetery.
