

Janet Gail Fields Zevnik

April 7, 1951 – November 14, 2000

(From - Wheeling Intelligencer – Thursday, November 16, 2000)

ZEVNIK, Janet Gall, died on November 14, 2000, after an extended illness. Janet passed away peacefully in her Middlebourne Home.

Through 26 years of teaching, she touched the lives of many with her courageous and giving manner. As a fifth grade teacher for Tyler County, Janet's accomplishments include serving as vice-president of West Virginia Education Association, receiving the Tyler County Teacher of the Year award and receiving the Esteemed WVEA Mary Titus Award for Professional Courage.

She is survived by her husband, John; a son, Joseph; a daughter, Jana and a daughter-in-law, Julie. Janet is also survived by her father and mother, Howard and Alice Fields of Huntington; two sisters, Carol Lynn and her husband, Esber Tweel of Charleston and Ruth Ann and her husband, Stephen Zoeller of Scott Depot; a brother-in-law, Bob Zevnik of Moundsville; her father-in-law, John Zevnik of Masontown; and several nieces and nephews.

She will be sorely missed while still equally loved by family and friends.

There will be a scattering of her ashes during a private family ceremony on Thursday, Nov. 16, at 4:30 p.m. This will be followed by a memorial service at 5 p.m. at the United Methodist Church on East St., Middlebourne. The memorial service is open to all who wish to pay respects and share in the memory of Janet.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to The Susan B. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, P.O. Box. 224523, Dallas, TX 75222-4523.

Arrangements are by the Furbee Funeral Home, Middlebourne.
