

Charles Richard Logan

July 31, 1941 – March 31, 2002

(From Beckley Register-Herald – April 3 2002 – copied for better legibility)

CANAJOHARIE, NY – Charles Richard “Dick” Logan, 60, formerly of West Virginia, passed away Sunday, March 31, 2002, at St. Mary’s Hospital, Amsterdam, NY.

Born July 31, 1941, in Charleston, he was the son of the Late George and Lottie “Opal” Milburn.

Dick graduated in 1961 in West Virginia.

Mr. Logan was an Air Force veteran, enlisting in 1961, and was honorably discharged in 1965.

For 36 years, Dick was employed at AT&T, where he held the position of communication technician.

Survivors include his son, Eric Logan of Canajoharie; his daughter, Stacey Sanders and her husband, Russell of Fort Plain, NY; a brother William D. Milburn and his wife, Sherry, of West Virginia; three grandchildren, Katelynn Dopp, William Logan and Keenan Sander; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Service will be 10 a.m. Thursday at Smith-Woody and Enea Funeral Home, 9 Center St., St. Johnsville, NY, with the Rev. Michael Yeziarski, Pastor of St. Johnsville United Methodist Church, officiating. Internment will take place at West St. Johnsville at a later date.

Friends and relatives may call 6 to 8 p.m., today at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, all memorial contributions in Charles Logan’s name may be made to Amsterdam Community Cancer Center, 1700 Riverfront Center, Amsterdam, NY 12010.

Arrangements by Smith-Woody and Enea Funeral Home, Johnsville. Friends may call from 6 to 8 p.m. today at the funeral home.