Sarah Lee Ball Bradberry, 71, of Zion Mountain, Hinton, died Monday, June 16, 2003, in Summers County ARH Hospital in Hinton. She courageously battled cancer for two years; however, her death was caused by a sudden illness.

She was born Dec. 8, 1931, in Summers County. She was the daughter of the late J.O. "Jimmy" Ball Jr. and Mary E. Dunbar Ball.

Mrs. Bradberry was a member of Bellepoint Baptist Church of Hinton.

She was preceded in death by her daughter-in-law, Susan Smith Bradberry; and son-in-law, Toney Anderson.

She was a homemaker and was active in the church and community. She was well known for her selflessness and love for cooking, especially her trademark fruitcakes. Nothing gave her more pleasure than having her family and friends gather around the table for Sunday dinner.

Survivors include her husband of 52 years, Jack Bradberry; a son, William J. Bradberry of Zion Mountain; a daughter, Becky Bradberry Anderson of Bellepoint; three grandsons, Matthew and Caleb Bradberry and Trevor Anderson; two granddaughters, Jackie and Sherry Anderson, all of Hinton; a sister and brother-in-law, Susan and Robert Orders Sr. of Charleston; a nephew, Robert Orders, Jr. of Charleston; two aunts and five uncles; and lifelong friends, Betty and Arnold Bradberry of Milboro, VA.

Services were held at 1 p.m. Thursday, June 19th at Bellepoint Baptist Church with Pastor Chris Brown officiating. Burial followed in Ball Family Cemetery, Zion Mountain, Hinton.
