

Vera O'Connor Rogers

May 28, 1903 – October 15, 1955

(From - Hinton Daily News – Saturday, October 15, 1955)

Mrs. Vera Rogers Succumbs At Home, Last Rites Monday

Mrs. Vera O'Connor Rogers, 52, well known and life-long resident of Hinton, died at her home on Ninth Avenue this morning at 7:10 a.m. after a three months illness due to carcinoma.

Born in Hinton, May 28, 1903, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. O'Connor of Ninth Avenue. Mrs. Rogers had attended the summer school session at Concord College and was employed as a teacher at Sandstone High School at the time of her death.

She was a member of the St. Patrick's Catholic Church and the Stitch and Chatter club, and former member of the Sacred Heart Chapter, Catholic Daughters of America and the Woman's Club.

Survivors include her husband, E. K. Rogers; two sons, Kent Rogers, a student at the Dental School, Northwestern University, Lt. Jack Rogers, stationed with the armed services in Berlin, Germany; one daughter, Mary Lou Rogers at home, her parents; three sisters, Mrs. Jack Waid of Raleigh, Mrs. H. B. Purvis of Hinton and Miss Druscilla O'Connor, Charleston and one half brother, Jerry J. Dillon of Chicago, Illinois.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday morning at ten o'clock at the St. Patrick's church by the Rev. Father Thomas L. Kerrigan and burial is to follow in the Greenbrier Burial Park.

Pallbearers named for the service are J. W. McCallister, Jr., Walter Nye, Ray DeWitt, William Messer, Harold Beasley, Bill Kesler, Harold Neely, Clyde Johnson, Claude Haynes, Fred Maddy, Irvin Maddy, Roy Long and Frank McDowell.

The body was removed to the residence this evening from the E. M. Meadows Funeral Home.