

Harry Gwinn Peck

September 30, 1922 - February 12, 2003

(From Hinton News – February 17, 2003)

HARRY G. PECK, SR.

Harry G. Peck, SR., of Kill Devil Hills, NC, died Wednesday, February 12, 2003 at this residence.

Mr. Peck, born in Hinton, West Virginia, was a retired Occupational Rehab Counselor and was a graduate of West Virginia University Institute of Technology. He was a member of First Flight Lions Club, a former Dare County Hospice Board member and a Methodist. He was a veteran, having served in the U.S. Army during WWII.

Mr. Peck was the son of the late Leo and Mary Mae Carden Peck.

He is survived by his wife, Betty Lee Peck of the residence; a daughter, Virginia P. Richmond and a son, Harry G. Peck, Jr., both of Morgantown, WV; two sisters, Virginia Gwinn of Hinton, WV and Jeanne Hazel of St. Charles, IL; and one grandson, Myles Richmond of Raleigh, NC.

A memorial service was held on Friday, February 14, 2003 at 7:00pm, at the First Flight Lions Club.

Twiford's Colony Chapel, Manteo handled arrangements.