

Norine Walthal Pack

October 29, 1909 – June 27, 1996

(From Findabrave.com)

Mrs. Norene Walthall Pack, 86, of 212 Miller Ave., died 1:10 p.m. Thursday, June 27, 1996, in a Charlottesville, Va., hospital following a long illness.

Born Oct. 29, 1909, at Forest Hill, she was the daughter of the late Joseph E. and Celia Hogan Walthall.

Mrs. Pack owned and operated Pack's Jewelry Store at Hinton with her late husband, William Shirley Pack for more than 50 years.

She was a member of Bellepoint Baptist Church, where she taught Sunday school for many years and was a lifelong resident of Summers County.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William Shirley Pack in 1981, three brothers, Jesse, Joe and Dewey Walthall; and four sisters, Lula Harmon, Ida Lee Woodrum, Sibyl Stennett and Sadie Weaver.

Survivors include two sons, Bill Pack and his wife, Ann, of Lynchburg, Va., and Steve Pack and his wife, Rita, of Hinton; two daughters, Mrs. LeRoy (Joan Gaye) Hill of Lynchburg, Va., and Mrs. Gene (Wanda) Davis of Hinton; a brother, Nathan Walthall and his wife, Hazel, of Forest Hill, 10 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren.

Services were held at 3 p.m. Sun. June 20th. at First Baptist Church, Hinton, with Revs. Charles Martin, Dan Ferguson, D. D. Elwell and W.A. Ferguson officiating. Burial followed in Greenbrier Burial Park.