Wife Of Amere Manager Dies

Mrs. Dorothy Irene Woodyard, 53, of 118 Jefferson St., died about 3 a.m. today at her home of an apparent heart attack. She had been in good health prior to the attack.

Born at Creamery, she was a daughter of the late George W. and Ida M. Murdock Keaton.

A resident of Raleigh County for the past 32 years, she was a member of the First Baptist Church and past president of the Fidelis Sunday School class of the church.

She was a member of the Beckley Woman's Club.

Mrs. Woodyard had also been active in Girl Scout work for several years, the Crippled Childrens Clinic and the Rotary Annex of the Rotary Club.

Survivors include her husband, S. W. Woodyard, district manager of the Amere Gas Co.; a son, Walter H., of Charleston; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy M. Mal-lamas, Orlando, Fla.; two brothers, William Keaton, Kenova and Sgt. Daniel L. Keaton, with the U. S. Air Force in California; a sister, Mrs. Minnie Hall, Norfolk, Va.; and four grandchildren.

The body is at the Calfee Funeral Home pending completion of arrangements.
