

Virginia Clotille “Coty” Harford Dressler

May 9, 1914 – June 17, 2000

(From Hinton News - June 27, 2000)

VIRGINIA ‘Coty’ DRESSLER

Virginia C. “Coty” Dressler, 86, of Hinton, died Saturday, June 17, 2000, at her home following a short illness.

Born May 9, 1914, in Hinton, she was the daughter of the late Dennis Neely and Mable Harford Neely.

Mrs. Dressler was a lifelong resident of Hinton, a member of Riverview Chapel, Hinton, and a homemaker.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William E. “Bill” Dressler; and a daughter, Kloris Ann McCormick.

Survivors include a son, Dr. William C. Dressler and his wife, Wanda, of Martinsburg; a daughter, Jean Beasley and her husband, Jerry, of Athens; nine grandchildren, Grant Aldridge and his wife, Toni, Jeff Aldridge and his wife, Sarah, Laurie, Debbie, Susan and Matthew Dressler, Heather Beasley and her husband, Pete McIntyre, Sarah and Leah Beasley; and several half brothers and sisters.

Services were held at 11 a. m. Wednesday, June 21st. at Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlors Chapel, Hinton, with Harry Pilkington officiating. Burial followed in Restwood Memorial Gardens, Hinton.

Arrangements by Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlors, Hinton.