

Michael Ray Pullen

September 23, 1952 - December 13, 1983

(From Hinton News – December 20, 1983)

PULLEN

Michael Ray Pullen, 31, of 200 Greenbrier Ave., died Tuesday December 13 at 12:05 a.m. near Ronceverte from a fall from a train, according to the Greenbrier County Sheriff's Department.

Born Sept. 23, 1952, in Washington, D.C., he was a son of Raymond O. and Phyllis Castor Pullen of Hinton.

Pullen was employed as an engineer for the Chessie System, a member of the First Baptist Church, the Hinton Fire Department, Elks Lodge and a member of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Other survivors include his wife, Patricia Kay Simmons Pullen; two daughters, Dawn and Alissa Pullen, both at home; two brothers, David Pullen of San Angelo, Texas, and Phillip Pullen of Hinton; two sisters, Judy Richardson of Jacksonville, Fla., and Becky Connard of Beckley; paternal grandmother, Melvina Pullen of Covington, Va.; maternal grandmother, Edith Goff of Layton, Utah.

Memorial services were held Saturday December 17 at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Hinton with the Rev. Lance Yost officiating.

Any donations of sympathy should be made to the American Cancer Society.