

Thelma Brown Marks

October 22, 1902 – December 2, 1979

(From - Bluefield Daily Telegraph - December 6, 1979)

MRS. J. H. MARKS

Mrs. J. Hobson (Thelma I.) Marks, 77, of 1005 Temple St., Hinton, died Sunday in a Beckley hospital after a long illness.

Born at Hinton, she was a daughter of the late Thomason and Carrie Virginia Clemens Brown. She was a member of the Episcopal Church, the Women of the Moose, the Delphi Club, the Women's Club and the Retired Teachers' Association. She had taught school in Hinton for 41 years.

Survivors include her husband; and one half-sister, Mrs. Mina Dixon of Bluefield.

Funeral services will be conducted today at 10 a.m. at the Ascension Episcopal Church at Hinton with Vicar Griffin Callahan officiating. Burial will follow in Thornrose Cemetery at Staunton, Va.

Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlor in Hinton is in charge of arrangements.