

Alma Rae Weeks

January 19, 1921 – December 15, 1943

(From - Raleigh Register - December 16 1943)

Former Pinecrest Nurse Succumbs

Miss Alma Weeks Dies In Baltimore Hospital

By The Associated Press

BALTIMORE — Miss Alma Rae Weeks, 22, of Hinton, W. Va., a student nurse at the Maryland General hospital, died of pneumonia which had developed from influenza.

She held a practical nurse's certificate from a Washington hospital and had done practical nursing at Pinecrest Sanatorium, Beckley, W. Va., before coming to Baltimore in 1941.

Her mother, Mrs. Rita M. Weeks two brothers and two sisters, all of Baltimore, survive. The body will be sent to Hinton for burial.