

Anna Laura Waid

December 1, 1908 – June 5, 1996

(From Hinton News – June 11, 1996)

ANNA LAURA WAID

Anna Laura Waid, 86, of 707 Temple St., died 3 a.m. Wednesday, June 5, 1996 in a Hinton hospital following a short illness.

Born Dec. 1, 1908, at Hinton, she was a daughter of the late Samuel Edward and Laura McDaniel Waid.

Miss Waid was a member of the Central Baptist Church of Hinton, was a retired Summers County School teacher with 40 years of teaching service, attended Marshall University and was a graduate of Concord College during her teaching career. She had taught in several one-room schools in Summers County and retired at the Riverview Grade School in Hinton.

She had also taught at the West Virginia Prison for Women, at Pence Springs during her summer vacation, was a member of the Wednesday Club, the Delphi Club, the Summers County Retired Teachers Association, Bluestone Lake Garden Club, Summers County Historical Society and Delta Kappa Gamma Sorority.

She was preceded in death by three brothers, Russell, Clyde, and John Waid.

Survivors include two sisters, Helen Miller of Hinton and Cary McClure of Beckley; a brother, Samuel Thomas Waid of Naples, Fla.; three nephews whom she reared, Thomas William Waid of Dallas, Texas, Samuel Whitesell Waid of Philippi and Joseph Wesley Waid of Dayton, Ohio, and several other nieces and nephews.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Fri. June 7th. at her home with Pastor Robert Moore officiating. Burial followed in the Greenbrier Burial Park, Hinton.

Arrangements by Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlors, Hinton.