

Insoo Gus “Skippy” Kwak Farr

November 17, 1933 – January 14, 2010

(From – Evansville, IN Courier Press January 17, 2010)

Insoo Gus "Skip" Farr, 76, of Evansville, Indiana, passed away Thursday, January 14, 2010 at Deaconess Hospital.

Skip came to the United States in 1948. He was adopted by the Farr family who lived in Hinton, West Virginia where he attended high school. Skip was a graduate of West Virginia University where he earned a Master's Degree in Biology and Chemistry.

After college Skip met and soon married Phyllis. Skip owned and operated Q.C.D. Packaging for 13 years with his good friend and business partner, Ed Bassemeier. Prior to that, Skip was a Quality Control Manager at General Foods. He was a member of the Elks, Masons (Northwest Chapter) and Toastmasters International. Skip was the first Asian to become an Elk and Mason. Skip was an avid golfer and belonged to Oak Meadow Golf Club. Skip was very passionate about his golf and rarely missed a day with his golfing buddies.

He was always a gentleman, enjoyed good food, loved going to the movies, and laughed easily and often. Skip was a loving and dedicated husband, father and grandfather. Skip is survived by: wife of 50 years, Phyllis J. Farr of Evansville, IN, Daughters, Debi Grealish (Brian) of Tualatin, OR, Dee Higgs (Tom) of Evansville, IN, Donita Farr (Dirk Carnahan) of Vincennes, IN, Grandchildren,

Olivia Higgs, Harrison Higgs, Aidan Grealish, Keely Grealish, Payton Carnahan Skip is preceded in death by his adopted family.

Funeral services will be held 7:00 PM Monday, January 18, 2010 at Browning Funeral Home 738 Diamond Ave. with Pastor Steve Clayton officiating. Friends may visit from 3:00 PM until 7:00 PM, Monday, January 18, 2010 at Browning Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Evansville Junior Golf League Association 3504 Debbie Lane Evansville, IN 47711.