Mary Lee Turner

CLINTON, Ind. — Mary Lee Turner, 93, passed away at 11:20 PM, Sunday, November 10, 2013 at the Vermillion Convalescent Center in Clinton, IN.

Mary Lee was born in Grahams Chapel, WV on October 22, 1920 to Nelson and Cleva McClaughtery. She was the only girl with two older brothers, Bob and Joe, and two younger brothers, Bud and Jack Moore. Mary Lee graduated from Hinton High School in 1939 and married Robert D. "Dan" Turner in October of that year. At the time of his death in 2000 they had been married sixty years.

She had two children, Carol and Bob. Once her children were both in school, she worked at Rose Jewelry. She was active in the Eastern Star and she and Dan were Worthy Matron and Patron of the Princeton Chapter. She was a member of the Pisgah Methodist Church and taught the primary children's class for many years. Mary Lee lived in the mountains of West Virginia and was a "Mountaineer" for eighty four years. In 2005 she moved to the Wyndmoor in Terre Haute, IN and later VCC in Clinton, IN. She enjoyed being a "Hoosier" and often said, "I have a lot of friends here and know some very special people."

Mary Lee is survived by a daughter, Carol Turner of Terre Haute, IN; a son, Bob (Susan) Turner of Philadelphia, PA; two grandchildren, Beth (Jon) Santilli and Jill (Pavel) Ortinski; and five great-grandchildren, Megan and Allison Santilli, and Eliot, Max, and Emma Ortinski.

Graveside services will be conducted at 2:00 PM, Sunday, December 1, 2013 at the Pisgah United Methodist Church Cemetery in Princeton with the Rev. Bob Boozer officiating. Family and friends will serve as pallbearers. Friends may call at Seaver Funeral Home in Princeton from 1:00 PM until the service hour on Sunday.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 1200 Quarrier St., Suite 4, Charleston, WV 25301 or to the Pisgah United Methodist Church, 1217 Pisgah Rd., Princeton, WV 24740.
