

James Edward Walker
March 17, 1931 – October 24, 1995

(From Hinton News – November 14, 1995)

JAMES EDWARD WALKER

James Edward Walker, 64, of Lakeside Dr., Sanford, Fl., died Tues. Oct. 24, 1995, in a Baptist Hospital, Winston Salem, N.C.

Born Mar. 17, 1931, in Jumping Branch, he was the son-in-law of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker of Jumping Branch.

He moved to Florida in 1952.

He was a member of the Central Baptist Church in Sanford.

He was a retired CSX Railroad engineer. He was a member of Masonic Lodge, Penny Pinchers Senior Citizens, Scottish Rite and U.T.U.

Survivors include his wife, Tish; daughter, Suzanne W. Herrin, Lakeland, Fla.; one sister, Beatrice W. Ridenour of Deltona, Fla.; and three grandchildren.

Baldwin-Fairchild Funeral Home in Lake Mary, Fla. was in charge of arrangements.