

Carol Ann Lilly Smith

May 11, 1932 – August 21, 1999

(From Hinton News – August 31, 1999)

CAROL ANN SMITH

Carol Ann Smith, 67, of Cross Lanes died Aug. 21, 1999, in Thomas Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

Born May 11, 1932 in Hinton, she was the daughter of the late Clark J. Lilly and Nell Eskridge Lilly.

She was a member of Covenant Presbyterian Church, Nitro, was a graduate of West Virginia State College, Institute, and a secretary for several Cross Lanes businesses and organizations.

Surviving: husband, Carl E. Smith; sons, the Rev. Edward Smith of Ohio, Brian Smith of Scott Depot; brothers, Lowell Lilly of Washington, D.C., Lyell Lilly of West Palm Beach, Fla., Philip Lilly of Hinton, Jim Lilly of Jacksonville, Fla.; sisters, Orpha Haselwood of Hinton, Marjorie Anderson of Marlinton; 10 grand children.

Services were held Tuesday, August 24th. at 11:00 A. M. at Covenant Presbyterian Church, Nitro, with the Rev. John Rollins Jr. officiating. Burial followed in Tyler Mountain Memory Gardens, Cross Lanes. Friends called Monday, August 23rd. from 7 to 9 p. m. at Keller Funeral Home, Dunbar, and one hour prior to service at the church. Memorial contributions may be made to Covenant Presbyterian Church Christian Education Fund, 424 Cross Lanes Drive, Nitro, WV 25143.

Arrangements by Keller Funeral Home, Dunbar.