

Edith Morrison Burroughs

December 29, 1907 – September 13, 2001

(From Hinton News – September 2001)

EDITH M. BURROUGHS

Edith M. Burroughs, 93, of Hinton, died Thursday, Sept. 13, 2001, in Princeton Community Hospital following a short illness.

Born Dec. 29, 1907, in Hinton, she was the daughter of the late Robert L. and Roxie Quinn Morrison.

Mrs. Burroughs was a 1926 graduate of Hinton High School and also a graduate of Marshall University and Concord College. She taught school for many years, teaching in several one-room schools in Summers County. She was an elementary school teacher in Hinton and Bellepoint. She had been a member of Hinton United Methodist Church since 1920, and was the oldest in membership and also years at the church. She was a Sunday school teacher for many years and, up until recently, a teacher of the Gleaners Sunday School at the church. She was a member for many years of the RSVP and the Summers County Hospital Auxiliary, the Retired Teachers Organization, National Teachers Organization and the State Teachers Organization. She was a former member of the Hinton Womens Club.

Ms. Burroughs enjoyed painting, crocheting, knitting, gardening and was an avid reader. She cherished time spent visiting her family and friends. Her church and Sunday school class of the church were very dear to her heart.

She lived alone in the house she moved into in 1946. She loved her dogs and cats but most of all her dear family.

She was preceded in death by three brothers, Earl, William and Paul Morrison; and two sisters, Helen Ward and Leota Davidson.

Survivors include a son, Jerry Burroughs and his wife, Mary, of Jumping Branch; two daughters, Nancy Webb and her husband, Mike, of Zachary, La., and Martha Wilson of Lewisburg; six grandchildren, Robert Burroughs and his wife, Nadine, of Omaha, Neb., Sherry Augustine and her husband, William, of Charlotte, N.C., Tiffany Burroughs, a student at Bryn Mawr, PA., Gregory Webb and his wife, Susan, of Charlottesville, VA., Stephanie Jamison and her husband, John, of Charlotte and Sara Beth Brody and her husband, Tryg, of Lewisburg; and seven great grandchildren, Reid and Michaela Burroughs, Quinn and Aaron Augustine, Alexander Jamison, and Gabrielle and Sydney Webb.

Service was held at 11 a. m. Monday, Sept. 17th., at Hinton United Methodist Church with the Rev. Kenneth Price officiating. Burial followed in Restwood Memorial Gardens, Hinton.

Arrangements by Pivont Funeral Home, Hinton.