

Jack Kenneth Butler

June 11, 1932 – August 8, 1977

(From Ancestry and Findagrave.com)

Jack Kenneth Butler, 45, of Huntington, died August 8, 1977 in Mason County, WV from injuries received while he was repairing storm-damaged power lines when his truck rolled over an embankment and crushed him.

Born at Hinton June 11, 1932, he was the son of Cecil K. and Florence Ailstock Butler of Hinton.

He was a graduate of Hinton High School, Class of 1950. He was widely known for his devotion to youth basketball and baseball in the Huntington area.

Jack was a power company serviceman for the Appalachian Power Company at the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife, Helen Marie Prince Butler, and their six children; both parents; and his sister Nancy Butler.

Jack was laid to rest in the Woodmere Memorial Park in Huntington, WV.