

Edward C. Harris

January 23, 1911 – October 19, 1989

(From Hinton News – October 24, 1989)

HARRIS

Edward Carroll Harris, 78, of Princeton, died October 19, 1989, in a Princeton hospital after a long illness.

He was a retired teacher, having taught in Clay, Summers and Kanawha counties. He was a member of the Central Baptist Church, Hinton, American Chemical Society, a graduate of Glenville State College and an Engineer Corps veteran of World War II.

Surviving: wife, Jane Butler Harris; daughter, Carol H. Fowler of Princeton; three grandchildren.

Services were held at 1 p.m. on Saturday, October 21 at George W. Seaver Funeral Home, Princeton, with the Rev. Brian Carpenter officiating. Entombment was in the Roselawn Memorial Mausoleum, Princeton.