JUMPING BRANCH - M. Maxine Lilly Alderman, 75, went to be with her Lord and Savior, from Raleigh General Hospital, at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, July 4, 2002, following an extended illness.

Born July 6, 1926, in Huntington to the late Richard Pearl and Orma Green Lilly Lilly, she lived most of her life in Summers County.

Mrs. Alderman was a homemaker, a former employee of C&P Telephone Co., Beckley Hospital, Jumping Branch Post Office and assistant superintendent at the West Virginia Prison for Women at Pence Springs. She served as organist for Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlors for the past 40 years and for Peyton's Camp Meeting for the past 37 years. She served all aspects of the youth of Jumping Branch Tabernacle. Along with her husband, she was active in all the affairs of the church, especially the music that was her special love.

Survivors include her husband of 56 years, Pastor Elmo R. Alderman Sr.; a son, E. Ray Alderman Jr. of Jumping Branch; two daughters, Dalene Coffman and husband, Tom, of Jumping Branch and Karen Poff and husband, Kent, of Gainesville, Ga.; seven grandchildren, Tara Oakey and husband, Jason, of Roanoke, Va., Joel Coffman and wife, Sara, of Christiansburg, Va., Joanna Coffman of Princeton and Sara, Jonathan, Kristina and Katie Poff, all of Gainesville, Ga.; and two sisters, Stella Hess and Lois Mahoney and husband, Harry, all of Elkins.

Service will be 11 a.m. Monday at Jumping Branch Gospel Tabernacle with Pastors Allen Gallimore and Ben Peyton officiating.

Burial will follow in Restwood Memorial Gardens, Hinton. Friends may call 6 to 9 p.m. Sunday at the church. Men of the church will serve as pallbearers, and the Tabernacle Youth Fellowship teens will serve as flower bearers.

Arrangements by Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlors, Hinton.
