Cynthia Fredeking

Mrs. Cynthia Ann Maddy Fredeking, 95, of Hinton, died Saturday, December 11, 1999, at the Summers Co. Appalachian Regional Hospital at Hinton, following a long illness.

Born February 16, 1904 in Summers Co., she was a daughter of the late B. Frank and Electra Woodrum Maddy, and was a lifelong resident of Summers Co.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William S. Fredeking, July 22, 1978.

Mrs. Fredeking was an active member of the First Baptist Church of Hinton where she was saved in April of 1923. Since that time, she had served as chairperson of every department of the Sunday School, chairperson of the Youth Group, had sung for many years in the adult choir, was a member of the T. E. L. Class and served as substitute teacher, former member and chairperson on the deaconess board. Mrs. Fredeking was very interested in Missions, organizing the Nadine Hinchman Circle and served as Church Coordinator and Chairperson of Missions.

She was a graduate of Concord College and West Virginia University with a Masters Degree and Elementary Principal's Certificate. Mrs. Fredeking served schools in Summers Co. of 43 years, half of them as a teacher and the remainder as Principal, retiring as Principal of Greenbrier School in Hinton. During this time she was chairperson of the local 'National Teachers' and the Summers County Principal Organizations. Also she was active in the retired teacher's organization and served as their chairperson, a member of the A.A.R.P. and the National Retired Teachers Association. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star #5 for more than 50 years.

Mrs. Fredeking was the last member of her immediate family. She is survived by several nieces and nephews, including Charles and Enola Saunders, Betty J. Keaton, Betty L. and Lloyd Whitlock and Frank Lilly all of Hinton.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 P.M. Tuesday, December 14, 1999 at the Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlors Chapel in Hinton with Pastors D. D. Elwell and Roy Lee Honaker Jr. officiating.
