

Dorothy F. Furrow Lindsay

January 11, 1932 – March 8, 1995

(From Hinton News – March 14, 1995)

DOROTHY F. LINDSAY

Mrs. Dorothy Faye Lindsay, 63, of Hinton, died Wed., Mar. 8, 1995, at her home, following a short illness.

Born Jan. 11, 1932, at Pluto, she was the daughter of the late Garvy A. and Nona A. Bennett Furrow.

Mrs. Lindsay was a clerk for the Edwards Department Store and Walmart, had lived 40 years in Ellenton, S.C. and was a member of the Aiken Church of Christ.

She was a four-month resident of Hinton and attended the River Valley Baptist Church at Forest Hill.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Leonard L. Lindsay in Dec. of 1971 and two sons, William and Eugene Lindsay.

Survivors include four brothers, John Furrow and his wife, Eloise, of Hinton, Dewey Furrow and his wife, Margaret, of Marie, Emmett Furrow of Winston-Salem, N.C. and Franklin Furrow and his wife, Aileen, of Richmond, Va., and two sisters, Thelma Johnson of True and Leoma Tyler of Danburg, Ga.

Graveside services and burial were held at 2 p.m. Mon. Mar. 13 at the Aiken Memorial Park Cemetery, Aiken, S.C. with Mr. Don Cain officiating.

Arrangements by Pivont Funeral Home, Hinton.