

Sybil Hallene Keatley Queen

April 21, 1916 – March 23, 1995

(From – Beckley Register-Herald – Mar. 26, 1995)

Sybil M. Queen

LARGO, Fla. — Mrs. Sybil McPherson Queen, 78, formerly of Ghent, died Thursday, March 23, 1995, in Largo, Fla., of natural causes.

Born April 21, 1916, at Bertha, she was the daughter of the late Buford Earle and Amanda Cleo Young Keatley.

Mrs. Queen was a retired registered nurse and a graduate of the Raleigh General Nursing School. She worked at Oak Hill Hospital, was a Fayette County Public Health Nurse and was employed by the UMWA Health and Welfare.

She also attended Peabody College in Nashville and received training in obstetrics at Boston-Lying In Hospital. She was a member of the Oak Hill Methodist Church, DAR, Red Cross Nurses' Association, Raleigh-Fayette Genealogy Society, Beckley Arts Club and the Pinellas County Herb Society.

Queen

Survivors include her husband, Lonnie Queen, also formerly of Ghent; a daughter, Sue M. Howery of Greenville, S.C.; a stepson, Darrell Queen, and wife, Carolyn, of Davidson, N.C.; a granddaughter, Terri Lynn Wells of Mebane, N.C.; two sisters, Patty Houston, and husband, Bob, of Pittboro, N.C. and Eleanor Persinger and husband, Leonard, of Alderson; three brothers, Alfred "Byrd" Nelson Keatley, and wife, Nova, of Pence Springs, George Keatley, and wife, Mildred, of Chesapeake, Va. and J. Dyke Keatley, and wife, Louise, of Medeathian, Va.; three sisters-in-law, Mildred Keatley of Suffolk, Va., Charlotte Keatley of Baltimore, Md., Maggie Keatley of Largo, Fla. and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be 11 a.m. Monday at the Calfee Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Marie Buffalo officiating. Entombment will follow in Sunset Memorial Park Mausoleum.

Friends may call 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. today at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 221 35th Street, S.E., Charleston, W.Va. 25304.

Arrangements by Calfee Funeral Home, Beckley.

Sybil M. Queen

LARGO, Fla. — Mrs. Sybil McPherson Queen, 78, formerly of Ghent, died Thursday, March 23, 1995, in Largo, Fla., of natural causes.

Born April 21, 1916, at Bertha, she was the daughter of the late Buford Earle and Amanda Cleo Young Keatley.

Mrs. Queen was a retired registered nurse and a graduate of the Raleigh General Nursing School. She worked at Oak Hill Hospital, was a Fayette County Public Health Nurse and was employed by the UMWA Health and Welfare.

She also attended Peabody College in Nashville and received training in obstetrics at Boston-Lying In Hospital. She was a member of the Oak Hill Methodist Church, DAR, Red Cross Nurses' Association, Raleigh-Fayette Geneology Society, Beckley Arts Club and the Pinellas County Herb Society.

Survivors include her husband, Lonnie Queen, also formerly of Ghent; a daughter, Sue M. Howery of Greenville, S.C.; a stepson, Darrell Queen, and wife, Carolyn, of Davidson, N.C.; a granddaughter, Terri Lynn Wells of Mebane, N.C.; two sisters, Patty Houston, and husband, Bob, of Pittboro, N.C. and Eleanor Persinger and husband, Leonard, of Alderson; three brothers, Alfred "Byrd" Nelson Keatley, and wife, Nova, of Pence Springs, George Keatley, and wife, Mildred, of Chesapeake, Va. and J. Dyke Keatley, and wife, Louise, of Medethian, Va.; three sisters-in-law, Mildred Keatley of Suffolk, Va., Charlotte Keatley of Baltimore, Md., Maggie Keatley of Largo, Fla. and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be 11 a.m. Monday at the Calfee Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Marie Buffalo officiating. Entombment will follow in Sunset Memorial Park Mausoleum.

Friends may call 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. today at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 221 35th Street, S.E., Charleston, W.Va. 25304.

Arrangements by Calfee Funeral Home, Beckley.

Queen