SAN ANTONIO - Master Sgt. Clarence E. "Snook" Dobbins, 69, U.S. Army, retired, formerly of Hinton, died Wednesday, Jan. 5, 2000, in Fort Sam Houston Hospital, San Antonio, following a short illness.

Born Oct. 27, 1930, in Hinton, he was a son of the late Roy Dobbins and Sadie Lilly Dobbins.

Mr. Dobbins was a loving husband, father and grandfather. He was a blessing to his family. He had a wonderful sense of humor, was quite a character, and everyone enjoyed his company.

Survivors include his wife, Patricia Dobbins; a daughter, Lynda Dobbins of San Antonio; a son Michael Dobbins and his wife Christine, of San Antonio; a sister, Martha Ann Richmond and her husband, Harold, of Beckley; two brothers, Roy Lee Dobbins and Charles Earl Dobbins, both of Hinton; four grandchildren, Many and Christy Munro, Michael Garrett Dobbins and Joshua Robert Dobbins, all of San Antonio; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were Friday, Jan. 7, at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery with Chaplain Gary Brown officiating.

Friends called 5 to 9 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 6, and the family received friends 5 to 7 p.m. at Colonial Funeral Home, Universal City, Texas.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the American Lung Association, P.O. Box 26460, Austin, TX 78755-0460.

Arrangements by Colonial Funeral Home, Universal City.
