

Dewey Baxter Lilly

February 13, 1926 – February 23, 1990

(From - Register Herald - March 4, 1990)

Dewey B. Lilly

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Dewey Baxter Lilly, 64, formerly of Mullens, died Friday, Feb. 23, at a Columbus hospital, following a short illness.

Born Feb. 13, 1926, at Lilly, he was the son of the late James Willis and Elsie Mae Pack Lilly.

Mr. Lilly was retired from the N&W Railways at Elmore, was a member of the New Albany Church of Christ, the Masonic Lodge and was a disabled World War II veteran.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Clarence, Velmer and James Lilly and two sisters, Vivian Ritter and Nettie Darnell.

Survivors include his wife, Norma Jean Lusk Lilly; three daughters, Mrs. Russell (Patricia) Belcher of Columbia, Tenn., Mrs. Gary (Sandra) Folden of Fredericksburg, Va. and Mrs. Gary (Pamela) Cain of Gahanna, Ohio; eight grandchildren, Jeff, Angela and Tracy Belcher, Trista, Miranda and Dustin Folden and Michelle and Eric Cain; five brothers, Hugh Lilly of Bellepoint, Joseph Lilly of Spanishburg, Quentin Lilly of Huntsville, Ala., Waldo Cox of Jumping Branch and Ibra Cox of Ellison; five sisters, Thena Edwards of Crab Orchard, Cassie St. Clair of Pipestem, Wilma Clark of Cambridge, Ohio, Ora Pack of Bellepoint and Clytie Lilly of Bud.

Services were held Sunday, Feb. 25, at the New Albany Church of Christ. Private burial was held Monday, Feb. 26, at the North Lawn Memory Gardens in Westerville, Ohio.

Friends called Saturday, Feb. 24, at the Moreland Funeral Home in Westerville.