

Mason Altare

May 30, 1910 – October 30, 1998

(From Hinton News – November 3, 1998)

MASON H. ALTARE

Mason H. Altare, 88, of Charleston, died Friday, Oct. 30, 1998, from injuries received in a car accident near Beckley.

Born May 30, 1910, in Summers County, he was the son of the late Hunter F. and Ida May Corker Altare.

Mr. Altare was a retired major with the West Virginia State Police and after retirement was employed by the West Virginia Department of Highways for 18 years. He was a member of the First Christian Church in Charleston, the Charleston Masonic Lodge, and the American Association of State Troopers.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ruth Frederick Altare, in April 1997.

Survivors include a sister, Thelma Buetow of Fredericksburg, VA., a nephew and niece, Bill and Sue Butts of Fredericksburg, VA.; and several other nieces and nephews.

Services were held at 11 a. m. Tuesday, November 3rd, at Pivont Funeral Home Chapel, Hinton, with the Rev. Fred Warren officiating. Burial followed in Greenbrier Burial Park, Hinton.

Men of the First Christian Church, Charleston, served as pallbearers.

Arrangements by Pivont Funeral Home, Hinton.